W. J. Faulkner, Pastor
The Congregational Church of Park Manor
7000 South Park Avenue
Chicago 37, Illinois

Dear Reverend Faulkner:

We are happy to acknowledge receipt of your check for $25.00 sent to the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee after the visit of our chairman, Mr. Marion Barry, Jr. to your church. Mr. Barry gave glowing reports of the warmth and genuine response of The Congregational Church of Park Manor. Certainly, the contribution is greatly needed and will put us in a better position to achieve the goals toward which we all strive.

The Coordinating Committee adjourned from its August meeting yesterday. The weekend was spent hearing reports from Mr. Barry and others who attended the conventions and have experienced other exciting, tragic, and encouraging situations throughout the summer. We made plans for another general conference of Negro students to be held in the fall. Your prayers are requested as we move now into another academic year full of challenge and promise. We also wish for the best as your church enters another year of labor. Please express our deep appreciation to the members of your worshipping community.

Sincerely yours,

Jane Stanbridge
Office Secretary
