

would be no arrests--or that the jurisdiction (because of the ministers to join the demonstration, nothing either that there arrested all involved. This time SICC asked for northern items) the Mississippi police, in the past, and always were necessary for the courage and morale of the local cit-Although such marches and demonstrations were legal (and continuing discrimination of themon land, the registrar. attempt to take the registration test and to protest the people march together from a church to the courthouse to day." The goal was to have several hundred local black day was announced as "Freedom Day" "Forest County Freedom