Dear Ed:

I see by the papers, as I might have guessed anyway, that you are thoroughly involved in the Jackson struggle. I am also encouraged to know that a good many other approaches than that of John Salter alone are being utilized. I suspect you have had a hand in all of this. But mainly at this point, I just wanted you to know that those of us occupying safe positions stand in solidarity with you.

I hope that Father Philip Berrigan will have a chance to visit you on his way north. We have kept up a good correspondence and he joined the FOR last week. I do hope you can drop him a line when you have a chance. We need very much to build up a sense of real community among the committed radicals in the Church.

I am really sorry to read of the action of the Mississippi Methodist Conference though I suppose it was to be expected. I wonder what this means in terms of your own ministry. Is there a chance that you would join the Central jurisdiction?

My very best to you and your wife.

Sincerely,

Brewster Kneen
