

Movement. Bishop Charles Colson a few months earlier had called for Klan beating. This church was the only church in the county open to the still suffered from a injuries, including a broken jaw, received in the and disappeared. Mrs. Beatrice Cole did most of the talking. Bud Cole men had disappeared. The men had interviewed them then headed home -- as told, in full detail, to FBI agents, several days before the three Andrew Goodman, and Mickey Schwerner, as told to other COFO workers, and to Dr. King, just as they had told it a few weeks earlier to James Chaney, to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt "Bud" Cole. They told their story

After prayers at the church site movement further down the dirt road church was burned because it took a stand."
 I want enough that people of all will be willing to burn them. This for those who were hurt by this... I rejoice that there are churches led part of Negroes, Dr. King commented at the burned church, "I feel sorry in the all Black longshore community, far out in an isolated rural